

Brittany Carson is a member of the Labour and employment law group. She joined Lavery after articling with the firm. Ms. Carson advises her clients on all aspects of employment law, including employment standards litigation and the review of employment contracts and company policies. She regularly represents employers in human rights matters and complex actions before the civil courts, including injunctive proceedings. She also practices in the area of labour relations, including grievance arbitration and certification disputes. Ms. Carson represents clients before Quebec's administrative tribunals and civil courts. Ms. Carson also practices in the area of workers' compensation litigation.

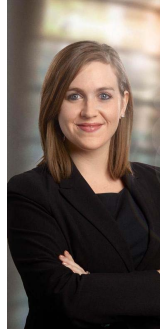

Prior to completing her studies in law, Ms. Carson earned an Honours B.A. in political science with a major in philosophy from McGill University. She is a member of the Law Society of Ontario.

Publications

■ Guy Laviole, Brittany Carson and Elodie Brunet, New Perspectives on Canadian Employment Law, under the direction of Mikolm MacKillop and Christine Thomson, LexisNexis, 2014 (Chapter 16 - Employment Law and Practice - Current Issues).

Distinctions

- Chambers Canada in the field of Labour and Employment Law, 2025
- The Canadian Legal LEXPERTS Directory in the field of Labour relations, 2024
- The Best Lawyers in Canada in the field of Labour and Employment Law, since 2023

2024 LEXPERT RANKED LAWYER

Brittany Carson

Education

- B.C.L., LL.B. Integrated Program, McGill University, 2013
- I.M.E. Prize in Commercial Law, Cunn Memorial Trophy Cup in the law of security, Dean's honour list 2012
- B.A. Honours Political Science, Major Concentration Philosophy, McGill University, 2009

Boards and Professional Affiliations

- Young Bar Association of Montreal
- Canadian Association of Counsel to Employers (CACE)