

Catherine Pariseault

Senior Associate

Catherine Pariseault practices in the Administrative and Health Law Group. Her practice focuses primarily on professional and disciplinary law, human rights, and forensic psychiatry.

She advises and represents both the offices of trustees of professional orders and professionals in disciplinary or investigative proceedings. Ms. Pariseault regularly argues cases before administrative tribunals and superior courts.

She also acts as legal counsel to health care institutions, providing advice and opinions on various legal and regulatory issues.

Ms. Pariseault assists and advises her clients in investigative proceedings conducted by the Commission des droits de la personne et des droits de la jeunesse further to complaints filed by individuals who claim to have been victims of discrimination or of a breach of one of the provisions of the Charter of Human Rights and Freedoms.

Education

- Graduate Diploma in Health Law and Policy, 2019
- Master 2 in management of health institutions, Université de Montpellier I, 2013
- LL.B., Université de Montréal, 2011

Boards and Professional Affiliations

- Fellow of the Canadian Institutes of Health Research (CIHR), legal training program, health ethics and policies
- Member of the Young Bar Association of Montréal

