

Bernard Trang

Associate

Bernard Trang is a member of the Business Law Group practising primarily in the areas of private financing, mergers and acquisitions, and corporate law.

Bernard completed his Bachelor of Civil Law at the Université de Montréal. While doing his university studies, he sat on the Labour Law and Level Committees of the faculty of law, respectively, as the vice-chair of sponsorships and vice-chair of communications. In addition, after winning the Juripop moot court competition in 2014, he acted as a mentor for subsequent participants in the same competition.

Upon completing his studies, Bernard participated in a business law research seminar at the Université de Montréal. This gave him the opportunity, in particular, to closely study the social responsibility of Canadian companies.
