

Bernard Trang

Associate

Bernard Trang is a member of the Business Law group. He focuses his practice primarily in private financing, financial services and general banking law.

In the context of his practice, Bernard advises banks, financial institutions and private companies on matters involving the granting of credit facilities and security relating thereto. Clients rely on his expertise for private debt or equity financing, project financing, equipment lease financing and acquisition financing.

His understanding of legal and business issues enables him to provide his clients with practical advice focused on solutions and the achievement of their objectives.

Bernard completed his law degree at Université de Montréal. After winning the Juripop Moot Court Competition in 2014, he has acted as a mentor to subsequent participants of such competition. Upon completing his studies, Bernard took part in a research seminar in business law at the Université de Montréal, whereby he has closely studied the social responsibility of Canadian companies.
