

Élizabeth Martin-Chartrand

Associate

Élizabeth is a lawyer in the litigation group and joined Lavery in 2016. She completed three cooperative internships as well as her articling at Lavery. Élizabeth obtained her license in civil law at the University of Ottawa cooperative program and also completed a student exchange at the Université libre de Bruxelles in 2017.

She holds a Master's degree in Medical Law and Ethics from King's College London University, completed in 2023.

Élizabeth focuses her practice mainly in the areas of health law, professional and medical liability, class action and personal injury.

Élizabeth was admitted to the Quebec Bar in 2019, and is a member of the Canadian Bar Association and the Young Bar Association of Montreal.

Publications

- Co-author of the annual publication in the JurisClasseur Que'bec, Lexis Nexis, 2021-2022 : “La responsabilité civile du personnel infirmier, Obligations et responsabilité civile”
- Co-author of the Quebec section of the DRI (Defense Research Institute), 2020, “Compendium Writing a Reservation of Rights”
- “Autonomous vehicles in Québec: unanswered questions”

Education

- M.A. Medical Law & Ethics at King's College London with Merits, 2023
- LL.L., cooperative program, University of Ottawa, 2018

