

Camille Ouellet

Associate

Camille Ouellet is a member of the firm's Labour and Employment Law Group. She joined Lavery in January 2018 as a student for her third co-op placement, and also did her articles for the Barreau du Québec at the firm in 2019.

Camille completed her Bachelor of Law in the cooperative program at the Université de Sherbrooke in 2018. During her studies, she had the opportunity to work for the legal department of a federal Crown corporation. In the fall of 2017, she also did clinical work in civil litigation cases at the Legal Aid Office in Sherbrooke, where she assisted an experienced lawyer in her casework.

Distinctions

■ Dean's Honour Roll, Academic Excellence, 2016 and 2017

Education

■ LL.B., cooperative program, Université de Sherbrooke, 2018

