

Dardia Garcelle Joseph

Law student

Dardia joined the Lavery team in 2019 and will be articling with the firm in 2021.

As an involved student, Dardia was, among other things, a student researcher with Pro Bono Students Canada during her university studies. She was also involved in the Mediation Clinic of the Université de Montréal and with the users of the Mobile Legal Clinic. Next fall, she will work as a research assistant for the publication Les Chantiers de la recherche en droit.

Distinctions

Loran Provincial Award

Black Business and Professional Association Scholarship

Education

Bachelor of Laws, Université de Montréal, expected to graduate in 2020

Boards and Professional Affiliations

Director, Le Pigeon Dissident student newspaper, 2019-2020

Student member, Canadian Institute for the Administration of Justice (CIAJ), 2018

Student Montréal

Telephone 514 877-3021
dgarcellejoseph@lavery.ca

Languages

English
French