

André Langlois

Consulting Lawyer

André Langlois is a consulting lawyer in our Public and Administrative Law Group, particularly in the area of tendering.

His expertise is mainly focused on municipal contracts, land use planning, inter-municipal agreements and municipal administration in general.

Mr. Langlois worked for 34 years in the Legal Affairs Department of the Ministère des Affaires municipales.

Publications

- Les contrats municipaux par demandes de soumission, 4th edition, Éditions Yvon Blais, in collaboration with Pier-Olivier Fradette, 2018
- Les contrats municipaux par demandes de soumission, 3rd edition, Éditions Yvon Blais, 2005

Lectures

- “Les enseignements pour les contrats municipaux rendus par la Cour d'appel en 2013,” Développements récents en droit municipal, Service de la formation continue du Barreau 2014, Éditions Yvon Blais.

Professional and community activities

- Consultant specializing in municipal law for 4 months with the European Union for the implementation of a new municipal system in Kosovo, 2007

Education

- Master of Laws, Université Laval, 1989