

Wiam Mahroug

Associate

Wiam Mahroug is a member of the Business Law group. Her practice focuses on securities and mergers and acquisitions.

Wiam advises and represents clients from the public and private sectors in their mergers and acquisitions activities, as well as in matters of regulation, financing and governance.

Wiam is a hard-working, meticulous and determined lawyer who is committed to achieving the desired results. Thanks to her international experience, she is able to adapt easily to a constantly changing environment.

Wiam puts clients first and gives crucial importance to the relationship of trust with them, which she believes is the key to successful collaboration.

Before joining Lavery, Wiam practiced transactional law with an international law firm.
