

Simon Clément

Managing partner of the Québec City office

Simon Clément is the managing partner of the Québec City office.

In addition to overseeing the management of the Québec City office, Simon is responsible for developing the firm's reputation in the Capitale-Nationale region and implementing the strategic plan that falls under his purview as a member of the firm's Management Committee.

He practises corporate law as well as litigation and specializes in the areas of civil, commercial and corporate litigation, with a particular focus on shareholder disputes, breach of contract and injunctions. He is also a recognized expert in the acquisition and sale of businesses and assets.

He chairs the Québec City division of the M&A Club, founded in 2012 to facilitate deal-making and financing in the mid-market private sector between M&A professionals.
