

Justine Beauchesne

Associate

Justine Beauchesne is a member of the Business Law group. She joined Lavery's team in the Trois-Rivières office as a student in the summer of 2017. After obtaining her law degree from Université Laval and passing her bar exam in 2019, she joined the Québec City office team to complete her articling in the fall of 2020.

Before beginning her law studies, Justine completed two years of studies at Université Laval in Public Affairs and International Relations. During her Bachelor of Laws, she did a semester at the University of Strasbourg, where she was able to study international law and become familiar with French law.

During her law studies, Justine had the opportunity to get involved in several committees, including the Lawyers Without Borders committee, the Université Laval legal information office, and the Jeux'ridiques committee. She also participated in the school court, where she reached the semi-finals, and in the legal clinic for start-ups.
