

Charlotte Dangoisse

Senior Notary

Charlotte Dangoisse is a notary in Lavery's Business Law group, where she practises real estate law. She focuses her practice on the search and review of real estate and mining titles. In addition, she participates in the drafting of deeds relating to the acquisition, alienation and financing of real estate, as well as in the implementation of title insurance policies and dismemberments and terms of ownership rights.

Charlotte practised as a notary, public officer and legal advisor in a notary office beginning in 2015, and joined Lavery's Montréal office in 2020.

Education

■ LL.M., Université de Montréal, 2016

■ LL.B., Université de Montréal, 2010

Boards and Professional Affiliations

■ Member of the Chambre des notaires du Québec since April 15, 2016

