

David Chun

Associate

David Chun is a lawyer with the Family, Personal and Estate Law group.

He focuses his practice on family law, particularly divorce, separation, child custody, provision for costs, division of property, and child and spousal support.

David has already successfully pleaded before several courts, such as the Superior Court (Civil and Family Division) and the Court of Québec (Civil and Youth Divisions).

David chose to practise family law because he wants to have a direct and long-term impact on the clients' lives that he advises and represents. He also wants to guide them in resolving their family conflicts and, when children are impacted by such conflicts, place their interests at the very heart of the solutions it proposes.
