

Pamela Cifola

Associate

Pamela Cifola is a member of the Business Law group and practices mainly in transactional law and commercial law.

Ms. Cifola supports our partners and experienced members primarily with commercial transactions, such as business sales and acquisitions, mergers and corporate reorganizations.

In additions to her practice in transactional law, Pamela drafts and revises commercial agreements of all kinds, including share purchase agreements, shareholders' agreements, partnership agreements, confidentiality undertakings, service contracts and private company stock option plans.

As part of her university studies, Pamela completed an internship with the judiciary of the Superior Court of Quebec, under the supervision of the Honorable Marie-Claude Armstrong and Babak Barin. As part of her legal interpretation course, she participated in the drafting of Bill 197, namely, An Act to amend the Consumer Protection Act to fight planned obsolescence and assert the right to repair goods, Bill no 197 (introduction - April 9, 2019), 1st sess., 42nd Legislature (Qc).
