

Pierre-Olivier Tremblay-Simard

Articling Student

Pierre-Olivier Tremblay-Simard is currently articling at the firm. Throughout his degree he was always involved in several committees and activities.

At the beginning of his legal studies, Pierre-Olivier volunteered with Épilepsie Québec through the Pro Bono students Canada program, for which he received an honor from the Lieutenant Governor. He also volunteered at the Université Laval legal information office to promote legal access to citizens.

At the Enjeux du droit first's edition, a case resolution competition, Pierre-Olivier and his team were granted the first position in result of their complete and innovative solution in the business development category.

During the last two years of his degree, he represented the Université Laval Law Faculty within the Canadian bar Association Law Students section.

Professional and community activities

Legal Information Office Volunteer, Université Laval, 2018-2019

Pro Bono National Student Network Volunteer, 2017 to 2018

Education

LL.B., Université Laval, 2020

Boards and Professional Affiliations

Canadian Bar Association Student Section Representative, 2018 to 2020

Member of the board of directors of the Récollets-Bâtisseurs, 2019-2020

Articling Student Québec

PTSimard@lavery.ca

Languages

English
French

