

Julie Aubin-Perron

Associate

Julie is a member of the Business Law group and practices mainly in transactional and commercial law.

She joined the Lavery team in 2021 as a student and articulated with the firm until February 2024.

Prior to joining the firm, Julie developed her legal knowledge and skills by working as a law student in a Montréal law firm. During her studies, she volunteered with Pro Bono Students Canada and the Clinique juridique des artistes de Montréal. She also participated in a mock WTO trial and the Donald G.H. Bowman National Tax Moot.

Professional and community activities

- Volunteer, Pro Bono Students Canada, 2020-2021
- Volunteer, Montreal Artists Legal Clinic, 2020-2022

Education

- LL.B., Université de Montréal, expected to graduate in 2022

Boards and Professional Affiliations

- Volunteer, Pro Bono Students Canada, 2020-2021
- Volunteer, Montreal Artists Legal Clinic, 2020-2022

