

Anaïs Martini

Associate

Anaïs Martini is a member of our business law group and holds a Bachelor of Civil Law and Juris Doctor from McGill University. While in this program, she participated in legal clinic activities and a copyright policy moot.

In 2016, she completed a Master of Arts in Criminology at the University of Manchester in England, where she further developed her research interest in civilian immunity and the use of artificial intelligence in armed conflicts.

In 2015, she obtained a Bachelor of Arts in Honours Philosophy and minor International Studies from Bishop's University. She was awarded two philosophy prizes during her studies.

Education

- B.C.L, J.D, Université McGill, 2021
- M.A with honours, The University of Manchester, 2016
- Bachelor Degree with honours (Hons.), Université Bishop's, 2015

