

Béatrice Bull

Associate

Béatrice is a member of the firm's Business Law Group and practices primarily in the areas of transactional and commercial law. Béatrice obtained a dual degree in civil and common law at McGill University.

Naturally inclined to get involved, she was elected as President of the McGill Law Students' Association. During her time with the association, Béatrice had the opportunity to showcase her talents in public relations and event planning and ensured the supervision of the association's every project and financial health.

She has been passionate about music since she was very young and obtained a double DEC in classical singing before going into the legal field. Béatrice continued to be involved in the artistic world by helping various charity organizations at her university. She also volunteered to be the artistic director for her faculty choir for more than two years.
