

Marie Diane Ngom

Associate

Marie Diane Ngom is a member of the Labour and Employment Law as well as Litigation and Dispute Resolution groups. Before joining Lavery, she completed her articling and began her career at a large regional firm where she primarily practised insurance law and civil and commercial litigation.

Marie Diane holds a master's degree in business law from Cameroon, and is pursuing doctoral studies at Laval University. Ms Ngom is a rigorous lawyer who stands out for her excellence in legal analysis and her human approach. During her studies, Marie Diane was very involved with her peers and the university community. She has served on the boards of Desjardins and St-Vincent de Paul Society, and has volunteered for the Legal Information Office. These commitments have earned her a two-year consecutive Leadership and Sustainability Scholarship.
