

Madeleine Stringer

Articling Student

Madeleine joined the Lavery team as a law student in 2022. She will be articling with the firm in 2024. She is currently completing her Bachelor of Laws at the Université du Québec à Montréal. Madeleine will depart in the fall of 2022 for a term abroad at the Università di Bologna.

During her university studies, Madeleine organised the first edition of a simulation of a collective labour agreement as her implication in the Labour Law comity of her university.

This year, Madeleine participated in the Laskin moot contest in administrative and constitutional law.

Education

■ LL.B., Université du Québec à Montréal, expected to graduate in 2023

Boards and Professional Affiliations

■ Labour Law comity UQAM, 2021-2023

■ UQAM Legal Clinic, 2020-2021, volunteer

