

Arianne Arguin

Associate

Arianne is member of our Business Law group. She primarily practices in the areas of transactional law and commercial law, where she supports our partners and experienced members working primarily on cases involving commercial transactions, such as corporate restructurings and business sales/acquisitions. She also works on cases involving the incorporation of the legal practice involving various professionals.

Prior to joining the firm, she honed her legal knowledge and skills in the legal department of the public health and social services network.

Ms. Arguin completed her bachelor of law degree at the University of Sherbrooke. During her studies, she was involved with the organization Jeunesse Enrichie, where she tutored university students on banking transactions and investments.
