

Catherine Prince-St-Antoine

Articling Student

Catherine Prince-St-Antoine will be joining the Lavery team as an articling student in the winter of 2024. She is currently completing her Bachelor of Laws at the Université Laval.

During her studies, Catherine has been involved as a volunteer-researcher at the Bureau d'information juridique of the Université Laval. Passionate about law and pleadings, she also participated in the Roy et Charbonneau mock trial. She was a part of the winning team of the Tournoi Cain Lamarre, which was organized by the Comité Droit et Art Oratoire de l'Université Laval. Catherine was then elected as chairwoman of the committee for the 2022-2023 school year.
