

Camille Desjardins

Articling Student

Camille Desjardins will join Lavery as a student in 2023 and will be articling at the firm in 2024. She is currently pursuing her Law Degree at Laval University at the same time as completing a Bachelor of Art in International Relations and Public Affairs with a concentration in Management and Public Affairs.

During her studies, she was involved in the Pro Bono Students Canada program, the Bureau d'information juridique as a volunteer and in numerous other student associations, such as the Simulation francophone des Nations Unies à l'Université Laval, as a sociocultural Vice President.

Camille also acquired legal knowledge and abilities by working as a law student at the Tribunal administratif du travail.
