

Michèle Gamache

Associate

Ms. Gamache joined Lavery's Business law group after spending eight years at the helm of the firm's Linguistic Services. On the strength of this experience, she intends to build on her abilities and in depth knowledge in securities law. Since she also holds a Master's Degree in Administrative Law, she intends to use her knowledge in this area of the law in the context of multidisciplinary files.

Nominations

■ Ms Gamache is awarded the 2011 Jules-Deschênes Prize by the Canadian Bar Association. This award recognizes the contribution of a member of the Québec Division of the CBA who has shown exceptional dedication and outstanding team spirit through her ongoing commitment to the Association.
