

Loïc Berdnikoff

Associate

Loïc Berdnikoff is Director of Professional Development.

Mr. Berdnikoff began his career with Lavery as a student, then articulated with the firm and then he continued his career with the firm as a lawyer and finally a partner. He practised in the areas of access to information and the protection of personal information. As such, he regularly worked on cases involving the confidentiality of documents, electronic data transfer and archiving (information technology), the right to privacy, and professional secrecy. He often appeared before various courts and tribunals, including the Commission d'accès à l'information, the Superior Court, Court of Appeal, and even the Supreme Court of Canada.

Committed to the advancement of law in Canada and elsewhere, Mr. Berdnikoff serves on the Executive board of the National Privacy and Access Law Section of the Canadian Bar Association and is a member of the Association de l'accès et de la protection de l'information (AAPI) and the International Association of Privacy Professionals (IAPP).

He uses his professional experience and in-depth knowledge of the legal community to put in place programs and resources required for the professional development of the firm's lawyers. He is also responsible for both university and lateral recruitment.

He continuously aims to offer quality support to enable the firms' students, articling students, and lawyers to thrive in their profession.
