

Annie Groleau

Paralegal

Annie Groleau is a paralegal and a member of the Financing and financial services group. She prepares applications for registration of, and registers, the various rights subject to publication, conducts due diligence reviews, and drafts search reports in association with financing and movable, immovable, and mining transactions.

Ms. Groleau joined Lavery in 2008. Prior to that, she worked as a paralegal, drafting documents and conducting searches in various areas, including civil and commercial litigation, construction, bankruptcy, and leasing, as well as tasks related to the publication and realization of movable and immovable securities.

Education

■ Diploma in paralegal studies, O'Sullivan College of Montreal, 1997

