Class Actions : The Court says no to retirees

October 1, 2010

Last August 3, the Superior Court of Québec dismissed the motion for authorization to institute a class action filed by Mr. Michel Dell'Aniello against Vivendi Canada Inc. This decision deals with two subjects of interest, namely, unilateral changes made by an employer to the group insurance program offered to the retirees of a business, and class actions that are national in scope.

Copyright (c) Lavery, de Billy, S.E.N.C.R.L. - L.L.P.